Breakfast

ACCOMMODATION

The Brando

Formerly the summer residence of the royal family & acquired by Marlon Brando in 1966, Tetiaroa is an exceptional atoll. It's a protected area made up of 12 motus (islets), accessible only by private Air Tetiaroa flights.

Inspired by Marlon Brando's original vision to create a venture of sustainable development to keep that tropical paradise intact, The Brando is now a unique model of clean and sustainable energy technology on a private island. The Brando offers all the classic 5-star services, but also exclusive outdoor activities in small groups to explore this unique environment, a scientific research station, some archaeological tours retracing the history of ancient Polynesian cultural sites, outdoor cinema.... Serenity & tranquility guaranteed.
