ITINERARY

Day 1

Split

Upon arrival at Split airport, take a transfer to your hotel.

Freshen up and then enjoy a true introduction to the region: wine and olive oil tasting. The heritage of the ancient Greeks, the two are today essential ingredients of any Croatian meal, and you will savor them with a dash of modern zest, slowly catching on in this otherwise quite traditional area. A guide will uncover for you the secrets of the UNESCO protected Diocletian's Palace. This Roman emperor spared no expense for the construction of a sumptuous residence, importing best quality marble, sphinx and columns. The original palace was modified by its new inhabitants during the middle Ages, but making it even more beautiful and what it is today: the city's living heart. Its narrow streets hide passageways and courtyards, some deserted and eerie, others lively and animated by the music from bars and cafes, or by the everyday life of its residents (3 hours).

Enjoy Split in the evening on your own.

Overnight stay in Split in a 5* hotel.

Day 2 Split Trogir Split

After breakfast, set out to explore the shorelines surrounding Split.

You will visit Split and Trogir both with an Greeks, Romans, Venetians heritage. Still, over time, Split flourished into Croatia's second largest city, while Trogir retained its small-scale charms. Start the day by visiting one of the most beautiful spots in Split, Meštrović gallery, hosting some of the most prominent sculptures of this world famous artist, disciple of Rodin. Learn about the stunning heritage in their UNESCO-listed historic centers, and visit their Cathedrals, St. Domnius in Split and St. Lawrence in Trogir.

Round off your day with a rhapsody of the Mediterranean freshness and flavors at one Split's favorite fine-dining venues (optional dinner- own expenses).
