Independent Holiday Packages

There's nothing like a stay in the colorful Cinque Terre and its typical villages to take in the most iconic views the Country has to offer.

Highlights

- Stay at Hotel Porto Roca overlooking the beautiful bay of Monterosso and only 200 mt. from the town's historic center
- Return Private transfers to Genoa Railway/Airport Included
- Visit the Cinque Terre villages with a private guide!
- Enjoy your Cinque Terre Card with unlimited train travel, trail access, and public amenities—perfect for discovering all five villages.

It's not without reason that the Cinque Terre is so famous and appreciated all over the world: its old villages, right on the water, steal the visitor's heart with their colorful buildings, narrow streets, tasty spots and scenic coastal walks between the five main towns. Officially part of the UNESCO World's Heritage Sites, this region will give you the chance to enjoy the most romantic sunsets of your life!

ITINERARY

Day 1

Genoa Monterosso al Mare

Welcome to Genoa! You will be transferred from Genoa's train station to Monterosso al Mare.

Overnight in Monterosso al Mare in a 4* accommodation or similar.

Day 2

Monterosso al Mare Vernazza Corniglia Manarola Riomaggiore Monterosso al Mare

After breakfast at the hotel, at approximately 10:00 am, meet the guide at the hotel.

Experience a private Cinque Terre tour by using the local public train. Monterosso al Mare is the largest and most visited of the villages; Vernazza is known as the queen of the Cinque Terre; Corniglia, the smallest of the Cinque Terre, stands on a high cliff, far from the sea; Manarola is a village that seems to climb the jagged cliff overlooking the sea, surrounded by green vineyards, making it the ideal spot for the best Instagram photos; the last village of the Cinque Terre is Riomaggiore, a charming seaside town with postcard-worthy views.

Overnight in Monterosso al Mare in a 4* accommodation or similar.

Breakfast, Lunch

RIOMAGGIORE FROM THE SEA

Day 3 Monterosso al Mare Genoa

After breakfast at the hotel, you will be transferred back to Genoa train station for your departure.
