Day 4

Rome Florence

After breakfast, check out and travel to Florence by train. Upon arrival, make your own way to your hotel, located close to the station, either on foot or by taxi.

Check-in at your accommodation before setting off to explore the City. Florence was home to the Medici family dynasty, the greatest art patrons of their time. Michelangelo, Leonardo da Vinci, Brunelleschi, Donatello, Dante and Galileo are just a few of the geniuses who thrived in this unique City! To start your tour, you will head to Repubblica Square, one of the most elegant and historically important "piazas" in Florence, overflowing with refined cafés and luxury shopping.

Follow your guide through the characteristic streets and picturesque alleys until you reach "Loggia del nuovo mercato", where your guide will demonstrate a symbol of good luck by caressing the nose of the famous bronze statue wild boar. On this tour, you will learn all sorts of local legends, fascinating stories, and unexpected facts about Florence.

Right around the corner, your guide will lead you to the intriguing Ponte Vecchio - a true icon of the city. This bridge is famous for its exclusive jewellery stores, unique structure, and for being the only bridge spared during the bombings of the Second World War. Your journey through Florence will lead to San Giovanni Square, home of the wonderful Florence Cathedral and Brunelleschi's Dome, as well as the Baptistery and Giotto's Bell Tower.

Overnight stay in Florence at the Grand Hotel Cavour or Similar.

Breakfast
