ITINERARY

Intro Map

The Royal Scotsman - Taste of the Highlands

Day 1

Depart Edinburgh

Departing Edinburgh in the early afternoon, journey north through the former Kingdom of Fife, then up into the dramatic scenery of the Highlands. In the evening an informal dinner is served, followed by entertainment in the Observation Car. The Royal Scotsman reaches the village of Boat of Garten, its stabling point for the night.

Day 2

Rothiemurchus

Wake up to majestic vistas and head to the restaurant car for breakfast. Then, travel by coach to Rothiemurchus Estate in the heart of the Cairngorms National Park, for a magical outdoor setting to try a spot of clay-pigeon shooting, archery, fishing or a tour of the estate. Rejoin the train for lunch and travel to Culloden Battlefield for a private tour.

In the evening, explore Strathisla Distillery, one of the oldest working distilleries and home to one of Scotland's most famous whiskies. Finally, head back on board to enjoy some spectacular panoramas on the way south through Aberdeenshire and Angus. A gala dinner is served on the way to Dundee, a festive finale to your Scottish adventure.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- The train departs from Edinburgh Waverley Station. Check-in is at least 40 minutes prior to departure at The Balmoral Hotel, after which our Host and Crewmembers will escort you and your luggage onto the train.
- Cabins have limited space; therefore, we recommend each guest travels with one suitcase and one carry-on bag.
- For daytime excursions and relaxing on board, we recommend casual, comfortable clothing, including appropriate footwear. Bring a warm, waterproof jacket and good walking shoes. For formal dinners, a dark suit and tie, tuxedo or national costume (such as a kilt) is advised for men; for women, a cocktail dress or similar is recommended. For informal dinners, a jacket and collared shirt, with or without tie, is acceptable attire for men.
- Special diets can be accommodated with our Chef. Please provide a detailed request of any allergies, food related or not at the time of booking.
- Soak up the spectacular Highland scenery from the Observation car. It's the perfect place for an aperitif or after-dinner drink. Live entertainment each evening is sure to provide countless stories to write home about.
