Day 2 Full day Bangkok Experience tour

Enjoy a delicious breakfast served at the hotel before embarking on an exciting morning tour. Hop aboard a private air-conditioned van as we head towards Wat Tramtir, also known as the Temple of the Golden Buddha. This awe-inspiring temple houses a magnificent 3-meter-high solid golden Buddha, weighing an impressive 5 ½ tons. The Buddha statue is intricately carved in the remarkable "Sukhothai" style, leaving a lasting impression on all who visit.

Our journey continues to Wat Pho, the renowned Reclining Buddha Temple. Words alone cannot adequately capture the grandeur and significance of this artistic masterpiece and religious sanctuary. Among the temples in Bangkok, Wat Pho holds the distinction of being the oldest and largest. Inside, you will be amazed by the largest Reclining Buddha in the entire collection of Buddha images found in Thailand. Additionally, Wat Pho is renowned for being the first public education center, adding to its historical importance.

After the morning exploration, we will pause for a delightful lunch at a local restaurant, allowing you to savor the flavors of the region.
