Honeymoon Bure

Inspired by the traditional wooden bungalows that grace Fiji's landscape, Namale Honeymoon Bures are thoughtfully designed with rustic charm. Embracing the natural beauty of Fiji, these bures showcase elements such as rich wooden accents, expansive glass windows, and lofty ceilings that create a breezy ambiance. While each of these honeymoon Fiji bures boasts a unique layout, all of them offer a generous living space, a cozy seating area, a plush king-sized bed, and authentic Fijian decorations. Additionally, you'll delight in the exquisite bathroom arrangement featuring meticulously tiled floors, stone embellishments, exquisite wooden touches, and a spacious 2-person shower.

Villa

Namale offers four private villa options for accommodation in Fiji. The Bula House, perched at the edge of Namale's lava cliffs, features luxurious furnishings, a lounging area, billiard table, and a dining table for six. The bedroom area includes a large 4-poster bed, a sunken sitting room for two, a walk-in closet, a two-person shower, a jacuzzi spa tub, and a private outdoor shower. It also boasts a large deck with a plunge pool and private stairs leading down to the shoreline. The Rosi villa offers a spacious living area, luxurious lounge, four-poster king-size beds, a walk-in closet, a large bathroom with a two-person shower and jacuzzi spa tub. Its sunken sitting room opens to a private deck with a hot tub and mini plunge pool. Additionally, the villa has a billiards table for entertainment and stairs connecting to a private deck for two. Civa and Duavata, the unique sister villas, consist of interconnected bures with a reception area leading to the main deck. The West Wing includes a dining area, mini-bar, outdoor bathroom, and shower, while the East Wing houses the main sleeping area. Both villas feature a large indoor jacuzzi spa tub, a lounge area with a deck, and a wrap-around infinity pool with luxurious outdoor furniture. These villas have earned recognition for their uniqueness and have hosted notable celebrities.
