Rail Journeys

Explore the rugged terrain and gold rush history of the Canadian Rockies onboard the Rocky Mountaineer, discovering true wilderness, Whistler's mountain mecca, hidden lakes, and canyons.

Highlights

- Relax in spacious, glass-domed train cars, enjoying gourmet meals, attentive service, and informative commentary about the history and geography of the region
- The route takes passengers through the Cariboo Gold Rush region, where they can explore the fascinating history of the 19th-century gold rush
- You will be treated to awe-inspiring panoramic views of snow-capped mountains, crystal-clear lakes, and rolling hills while seated on spacious reclining seats
- From bald eagles soaring above the treetops to bears foraging along the riverbanks, you may catch glimpses of these majestic creatures in their natural habitat

On this three-day luxury train journey with Rocky Mountaineer, witness true wilderness, explore the vibrant mountains of Whistler, and see hidden lakes and canyons that few others get to experience. Relax in comfort as you traverse seemingly impassable terrain aboard the Rocky Mountaineer train. Revel in the history of the gold rush and marvel at Mount Robson, the highest peak in the Canadian Rockies.

Your journey begins in Jasper, where you board the luxurious Rocky Mountaineer train. Wind your way to the charming rural town of Quesnel and then on to the rolling hills and vast forests of British Columbia's Northern Territory.

Continuing south to Whistler, varied scenery awaits you, from breathtaking views of the Fraser Canyon to the shorelines of glacial-fed lakes. On the last day, return to Vancouver onboard and witness the stunning scenery of the Sea to Sky Corridor, canyons, Howe Sound, and the Coast

Mountains.

Breakfast, Lunch

Day 1

Rocky Mountaineer: Jasper Quesnel

Travel onboard the Rocky Mountaineer from the mountain resort town of Jasper in the Canadian Rockies to the charming rural town of Quesnel, gateway to the North Cariboo. Pass through the Rocky Mountain Trench, with the steep Rocky and Cariboo Mountains on either side and on to the rolling hills and vast forests of British Columbia's Northern Interior. Highlights include Mount Robson, at 3,954 metres (12,972 feet), the highest peak in the Canadian Rockies, Yellowhead Pass and Moose Lake, home to plentiful wildlife, including a large population of moose, caribou and bears. Your day concludes as the train passes through the town of Prince George and follows the Fraser River into Quesnel in the evening.

Day 2

Rocky Mountaineer: Quesnel Whistler

Your journey continues southwest to the all-season resort town of Whistler, host of the 2010 Winter Olympic Games and renowned for world-class outdoor activities, both leisure and adventure. Along the route, enjoy breathtaking and varied scenery, from the desert-like conditions of the Fraser Canyon, through the rolling hills and vast ranchlands of the Cariboo Plateau, to the river canyons and lush farmland of the Pemberton Valley. Highlights include sweeping views of the Fraser Canyon, the crossing of Deep Creek Bridge, one of the highest railway bridges in the world, and the shorelines of glacial-fed Seton Lake and Anderson Lake. Your rail journey today ends on arrival at Pemberton Station in the evening, where you will board a motorcoach transfer to your Whistler accommodation.
