ITINERARY

Day 1 Seville Jerez

On the first day, travellers will be welcomed in Seville at Hotel Alfonso XIII at 10:00 a.m. The day begins with a visit to the capital of Andalusia, renowned for having the largest historic center in Spain. Following lunch, a panoramic view of the city awaits, along with a tour of the iconic Plaza de España. Later, guests will board the Al Andalus Train, where a welcome toast will be offered, and the crew introduced. Dinner will be served on board as the train journeys to Jerez, where guests will spend the night.

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 2 Jerez Cadiz Jerez

On the second day, following breakfast, guests will embark on a journey by coach to explore Cadiz, affectionately known as the "Tacita de Plata" and renowned as one of the oldest cities in the Western world. Guests will have the opportunity to visit and immerse themselves in the charm of Cadiz, with some free time to explore at leisure. Lunch will be provided. In the afternoon, you'll return to Jerez, where guests will have free time to enjoy the surroundings. Dinner and overnight stay will be in Jerez.

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 3 Jerez Ronda

After breakfast, guests will commence the day with a visit to a sherry wine cellar, followed by a captivating performance of "How the Andalusian Horses Dance," a renowned equestrian ballet set to Spanish music. Lunch will be served onboard as you journey towards Ronda. In the evening, guests will enjoy dinner at a local restaurant in Ronda, where they'll also spend the night.

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 4 Ronda Cordoba

Following breakfast, guests will explore Ronda, known for its breathtaking location perched on a plateau overlooking the deep Tajo de Ronda gorge, through which the Guadalquivir River flows. Lunch will be served onboard as the train travels towards Cordoba. Upon arrival, embark on a guided tour of Cordoba, followed by dinner and an overnight stay in Cordoba.

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 5 Córdoba Úbeda Baeza Granada

After enjoying breakfast on board, you'll begin your exploration in Cordoba with a visit to the Mosque-Cathedral. Continuing your journey, we'll delve into the history of the former capital of the emirate and the medieval caliphate of Al Andalus, which at its peak became the largest, most cultured, and opulent city in Western Europe. Lunch will be served on board as you travel to Linares-Baeza station, where you will visit Úbeda and Baeza, both designated as UNESCO World Heritage Sites. In the evening, as you dine, you'll arrive in Granada for an overnight stay.

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 6 Granada

Following breakfast, explore one of Spain's most visited monuments: the magnificent palace complex constructed by the Nasrid rulers of the Kingdom of Granada, known as the Alhambra. (Please note that the opening hours of the Alhambra may vary depending on factors such as group size, language availability, and authorisations from the palace complex authorities). Lunch will be provided. In the afternoon, exploration of Granada will continue. The day concludes with dinner and the night in Granada.
