Breakfast, Dinner

Baveno Lake Maggiore Baveno

Today, enjoy a full day excursion visiting the Borromean Islands by boat. Isola Bella is one of the most admired destinations on Lake Maggiore and here, visit the famous Baroque Palace and Italian style terraced gardens, famous for its white peacocks.

After some free time, the next visit will be to Fisherman's Island (Isola Dei Pescatori), the only permanently inhabited island, which is famed for its narrow lanes and Church of San Vittore. You'll have some free time for lunch (under own arrangements), before you continue to Isola Madre, the largest of the three islands. With its 20 acre park, the rare plants and exotic flowers in the English styled botanical gardens will enchant you, before you finish up with a visit to the 16th century home where the Borromean family spent their summers
