Day 4

Roses Núria Roses

Today, let's uncover more of the beauty of the Pyrenees. We will depart the hotel for a full-day guided excursion of the Spanish side of the Pyrenees and to the magnificent Nuria Valley as well as a trip on the Nuria rack railway. The train will climb almost 1000m before arriving at the remote town of Nuria. Railway is the only form of access to this small town and pilgrimage centre, home to an image of the Virgin Mary. We will finish the day with a visit to the Sanctuary, before returning down the valley on the train once more. Train duration: 1 hr (approx. 25km).

Day 3 Roses Villefranche-de-Conflent Mont Louis Roses

Let's discover more this morning as we cross the border to France where we spend the day exploring the French side of the Pyrenees. First, we will visit the fortified town of Villefranche-de-Conflent, a UNESCO world heritage site. Here we will have some free time to explore the fortresses built during the time of Louis XIV and designed by the French engineer Vauban.

In the afternoon, let's admire the scenery from the comfort of our carriage as the train winds its way up into the Tet valley, passing through forests and tunnels and across ravines and viaducts, including the Pont Gisclard suspension bridge and the Séjourné viaduct with its dramatic double-decker arches. We will finish this scenic journey at the small village of Mont Louis before returning to our hotel by coach. Train duration: 1.15 hrs (approx. 29km).

Overnight stay in Roses at Hotel Monterrey Roses by Pierre & Vacances or similar.

Breakfast, Dinner

Day 5 Roses

We will have today to relax and enjoy the scenic seaside town of Roses. Our local guide will be happy to suggest activities and advise which highlights are a must – see. Why not relax on the beach or enjoy some souvenir shopping followed by lunch in the Spanish sunshine.

Day 8

Roses

It's time to say 'adios' to the beautiful seaside town of Roses and set off for home.

Check out.

End of services.

Breakfast

Day 7

Roses Figueres Roses

Today we will experience more as we travel to the town of Figueres, to visit the Dalí Museum (entrance included). Salvador Dalí was born in Figueres and he is considered the father of surrealism. His artistic repertoire includes a great variety of paintings, films, sculptures, and photographs. The heart of the museum is the building that housed the Figueres town theatre when Dalí was a child and is where the young Dalí's first exhibitions were showcased. The museum now displays the largest and most diverse collection of his works.

In the afternoon we will return to the hotel and where will have the afternoon at leisure.
