Cruise

Hotel Barge Rosa takes you on a breathtaking odyssey along the canals of southwest France. Discover Saint Emilion and the Château de Duras.

Highlights

- Cruise across the 1,900 foot Agen aqueduct
- Tour of the famous Saint Émilion
- Tour the Garonne River aboard a traditional flat-bottomed boat
- Wine, cheese and Armagnac tastings

Rosa features a clipper-style barge that was built in Netherlands in 1907. She was converted to a hotel barge in 1990. Beautiful and elegant, this barge was featured in the successful television series, "Rick Stein's French Odyssey" where it was taken on a relaxing voyage across the colourful, captivating part of southern France.

Rosa features a dining room, saloon bar, sun deck and 4 staterooms accommodating 8 passengers with full en-suite facilities. The crew includes the captain, tour guide, master chef and a housekeeper. There are bikes available for guests. Rosa still cruises in the calmer canals of southwest France, taking you to captivating locations such as the famous Saint Émilion, the impressive Château de Duras, the 1,900 foot Agen aqueduct, and other stunning places known for wine, cheese and Armagnac tastings.

Day 2 Castet-en-Dorthe Meilhan-sur-Garonne

This morning, visit the medieval town of Saint Emilion, a UNESCO World Heritage site and centre of the most famous of the Bordeaux appellations. Later, stop at Château Franc Mayne, producer of premier and grand crus wines, where we discover the secrets of the vine and, of course, enjoy a tasting. After lunch on board, you'll follow the Canal de Garonne, to the port of Meilhan-sur-Garonne, before dinner on board.

Selection of alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages included.

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 3

Meilhan-sur-Garonne Lagruère

This morning enjoy a cruise to the charming little village of Lagruère. At this time, you can cycle or walk the tow path and enjoy the stunning countryside. Following lunch on board, tour the Garonne river aboard a traditional flat-bottomed boat, after which we visit the beautiful village of Le Mas d'Agenais, its 11th century church playing host to an ornate Romanesque doorway and an original masterpiece by Rembrandt.

After this you will take a short drive to an artisanal dairy farm where you will experience the entire cheese making process, culminating in a delicious tasting of goats' cheeses. Dinner, if the weather permits, is a gourmet barbecue beside the barge, overlooking the River Garonne.

Overnight stay onboard Hotel Barge Rosa in a Stateroom.

Selection of alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages included.

Day 4 Lagrère Buzet-sur-Baise

This morning, depart early and enjoy the colourful market of Lavardac, before heading to the 13th century bastide village of Vianne with its medieval streets and atypical 12th century Romanesque church. A delectable lunch of regional specialities will be served at restaurant 'Le Moulin des Saveurs', before returning to the barge for a cruise along the tranquil Canal de Garonne to your mooring at Buzet-sur-Baise, a pastoral haven. Dinner on board.
