ITINERARY

Day 1-8 Camargue Region

Discover Camargue's natural splendour on a sun-soaked boating holiday. Explore saltwater lagoons, golden beaches, and diverse wildlife. Visit historic cities like Aigues-Mortes and enjoy horseback rides through wetlands. Experience Castelnaudary's charm and cruise to Port Cassafières, with Carcassonne's citadel en route.

The perfect boating region for

Swimming

The Camargue is known for its gorgeous beaches. They stretch out for miles along the Étang du Thau at Méze, a wonderful spot for lagoon swimming. Two Port Cassafières ocean favourites are La Redoute Plage and La Farinette Plage.

Family

The Camargue is a great family friendly destination. Beach resorts at Palavas-les-Flots and la Grande-Motte offer watersports and amusements. Play mini golf, go to a water park, see an aquarium and check out a dinosaur park at Le Cap d'Adge!

Wildlife

Bring binoculars whilst cruising in the Camargue! More than 400 species of birds live in the marshes, including pink flamingos. Wild horses and bulls graze amidst lush grasslands.

Horseback Riding

The Camargue is known for its wild white horses. You'll see herds as you travel along. Ride the dunes and trails! The La Grande-Mott Riding School offers horse rides for kids age four and up! You can also ride at the resort of Le Cap d'Adge!
